

Dance Indy Swing Presents:

PJ Turner Weekend in Indy

Saturday/Sunday

September 12-13, 2015

4 workshops, 2 dances, Saturday night Supper

About PJ:

PJ, born and raised in Knoxville, TN , has been dancing since the age of 10. His initial start to dancing was in clogging, but only years later he started line dancing, country dancing, and then eventually discovered West Coast Swing. He quickly realized that WCS was a perfect match for his personality. He currently competes in Classic Division with his professional partner Tashina Beckmann and dances in Jack & Jill's and Strictly's where he has also had much success. And of course loves late night social dancing!

PJ is known for his ability to interpret music in his own unique style. PJ was honored to receive the "Social Dance Award" at Boogie by the Bay 2011 and the "Bob Preiss Social Dance Award" at Swing Diego 2012. You will often hear PJ say that when he steps onto the dance floor, his goal is to make his follower smile. It is clear that he has a very high success rate at achieving this goal!!!

Special: PJ will be offering private lessons during his visit here on Saturday and Sunday ... Please call Krystal Sambolin to schedule at 317-306-1582
